

Contents

Introduction: why do we need these techniques?	5
What is Projection?	6
Different versions of the unconscious/nonconscious	6
Choosing the right techniques	10
Using and analysing the techniques	13
How to analyse projectives	16
Suggested reading for this section	16
List of tools and techniques	18
1. Analogies and Metaphors	18
2. Archetypes (and Fairy Tales)	20
3. Balloon Game/Life Raft	25
4. The Blob Tree	26
5. Bubble drawings	29
6. Customer journeys/Timelines/Process analysis	32
7. Disruptive techniques	36
8. Enabling precursor techniques	38
9. Enhanced recall interviewing	40
10. Graffiti	42
11. Guided visualisation/Brand room/Planet/HQ	43
12. Implicit Association Test (IAT)	45
13. Intuitive collage	46
14. Kelly or Repertory grid	49
15. Laddering (a.k.a. Means-End Chain)	52
16. Magic Shelf	58
17. Mapping	59
18. Me maps/Planetarium	61
19. Mood Boards/NLP State re-creation	62
20. Myers-Briggs for brand personality	64
21. Obituaries/School reports/Job applications/Letter to a brand	67
22. Observation, auto-ethnography, etc.	68
23. Personification/Brand party/families	70
24. Projective questioning	72
25. Psychodrawing (free drawing) and clay modelling	74
26. Role play, Simulation and Enactment	76
27. Self-scripts	80
28. Sentence completion	81
29. Snakes and Ladders	82

30. Storytelling	84
31. Serious Play	86
32. User image	88
33. Word association	90
34. Visual thinking	92

Briefing notes on key theories 93

How the Unconscious become the Nonconscious: from sex-crazed monkey to behavioural guidance systems	93
1. Unconscious, subconscious, pre-conscious	93
2. What was the Freudian unconscious?	93
3. Jung and the collective unconscious	95
4. Psychodynamic theory	96
5. The Unconscious in public relations	96
6. Neuroscience updates the unconscious	97
7. Behavioural economics and Systems 1 and 2	98
8. Implications of BE for research	100
9. The missing link – where the biases arose	100
10. The adaptive unconscious	101
11. Unconscious behaviour guidance systems	101
12. Evolution of Systems 1 and 2	103
13. The basics of Personal Construct Psychology (PCP)	104
14. Models of how brands work	105
15. Working with habits	106
16. What are heuristics?	107
17. Essentials of memory	109
Books for further reading	113